One of the most fun video games to come out Steam Greenlight, and incredibly easy to get into. Flying airships into battle, shooting cannons, boarding ships by jumping hundreds of feet across open sky, it has everything a good game should. Get it.. This is fantastically fun. So much so My buddy and I grabbed two non VR owners and made them play <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nqn65RVT8Kk&ytbChannel=Super%20VR%20Bros>

Theres 10 mins of just gameplay with 4 peeps having a blast. The Price is right and i can run this on my tablet as well so its a great party game to show off VR as well as having a giggle!. Pretty impressive for something that is fairly early in development. As with all early access games, if you're prepared to put up with bugs and you're interested, this is worth the time. The developer is very responsive to the input of the player base acting on bug reports and feature suggestions (check the community discussions). There are practice as well as competition inspired ranges and a number of highly detailed weapons with a variety of sights, magazine capacities and classes from production (off the shelf) to open (anything goes). Relevant for anyone in the realm of practical shooting whether it's from a competition or tactical perspective.

As mentioned there are bugs as it is in EA, if this is a deal breaker then wait until it's done.. Not a terrible game but there are just many better alternatives for space strategy; I'd suggest something like Homeworld or Star Wolves instead.

+Graphics are decent for the time
+Voiced dialogue
+Excellent range of zoom from up close and personal to star map level

-Poor UI, often lacking in helpful information
-Controls are poorly explained and can be awkward
-Game is likely to crash due to 'sound system error' without manual fix/download:

<http://www.moddb.com/mods/haegemonia-vector-prime/downloads/steam-legions-of-iron-sound-system-and-mp-fix>. For a free Steam game, this is alright. I am able to play it using my Xbox One Controller. My only concern is that it is quite slow on my computer. I have a 5 year old computer (HP 2000 laptop) so if you have an older computer, then wait until you upgrade. It's an easy way to kill time when it's actually running fast! :D. Was super excited but it won't even get past the "connecting to steam" screen.

"Update" It was just a server issue, everything is up. This game is probably the best bowling game I've played, VR or not. Awesome job to the devs and especially grateful for their fast response.

Outcast - Second Contact is a remastered version of a 1999 masterpiece game.

20 years is an epoch in game development timeline. Nowadays game looks dated on many levels:

- * Certain lack of gameplay depth
- * Somewhat simplistic story and not a lot of side-content
- * Very basic character development
- * Glitchy unnatural animations
- * Lacunas in voice acting

The masterpiece is still there, though. Game has things to make up for its weaknesses. Well, two mainly:

- * Strength of its worlds genesis and characters: you just believe in it. Between visuals (all new and shiny, making it look decent in 2019) and fragmentary story inserts game is very immersive, despite not offering a lot on any other front.
- * Orchestral music score. Still as touching and profound as it ever was.

Enjoyed every moment of my twenty years later re-walkthrough. Worth it, even if you know nothing about original game.. another pile of steaming ubisoft \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665t. requires uplay to run, \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665ing avoid. Why did I spend money on this? I mean, I want to support LGBT content in videogames, but not when it is this poorly made. Writing is grade-school level and the story is slow and boring. Some of the artwork is OK but it is so sparse it gets really frustrating to click through the dialogue with the same pictures over and over. Absolute waste of time and money.. Aesthetic is nice but the game itself is hardly a game. Cool concept but this feels like a ps1 game.. If Endwar got the BF2142 treatment, it'd make this game, Only real issue with it is that it doesn't have MP bots, but the missions are solid. Worthy at a discount.
